NASTUNIAK, Dmytro Mykolayevych

of Oldřichov v Hajích u Liberce, CSSR

- Ukrainian, Czech citizen, married, born 1904 in Chernivtsi ( his father was a worker), studied law at Chernivtsi University, graduated from same and acquired a PhD degree in Law ✓
- his wife Odarka nee Knazkyj ,also of Chernivtsi, in 1938 "introduced" N. to the OUN
- two children : daughter Marusia, construction engineer son Yurko, graduate of Veterinary Institute, now serving with Czech Army
- 1940-41 imprisoned by the Sovs after he registered for emigration to Germany as a "Volksdeutscher"
- 1941 liberated by Germans and Rumanians
- Jan 1942 moved to Berlin and then to Liberec ( then Reichenberg)
- 1946 - 1948 "contributed" from time-to-time to "Svoboda" in Jersey City, USA and "Novy Shlakh" in Winnipeg, Manitoba under "Ihor Kyy"
- 1950 arrested and sentenced to 25 years of Soviet concentration camps and sent to Dzesgazgan in Kazakhstan
- 1959 released from the camp and sent back to Liberec, CSSR
- while in Kazakhstan met with Yaroslav Romanovych DASHKEVYCH with whom stayed in correspondence since their release from the camp ( 1968 N. sent a letter of D. in which the latter expressed his opinion on some articles in "Suchasnist , the letter was addressed to Suchasnist in Munich)
- 1965 N. sent Dziuba's speech on Symonenko's anniversary celebration in Kiev to "Svoboda"
- in correspondence with "Svoboda", "Novy Shlakh" since 1959 , with "Suchasnist" since 1966; also sent some letters to Prolog in 1968
- asked for our publications and other books and received them
- June 1969 visited Vienna and Bludenz, Austria; as he put it, he came to establish contact with Melnykivtsi and Suchasnist; in Vienna he stayed with Melnykivtsi representative Dr M. Iwanovytch, Vienna, Dorotheergasse 6/15, in Bludenz with Ilse Strangfeld-Vlach, Bludenz, Bremschlstr. 31; in Bludenz N. met with two representatives of Suchasnist on 26 June 1969
- during his meeting with the representatives of Suchasnist N. stressed the fact that he had possibility to smuggle emigre publications to Ukraine and was already doing it; there existed in the Ukraine some sort of a "net" that was engaged in this activity, he planned to develop it in the future; in the Ukraine there existed an underground "organization" or rather "group" called "Strila" ( Arrow) consisting of former concentration camp inmates who pledged to help each other; N. claimed to have contacts with Dziuba's relatives and have made "arrangements" for "smuggling out" literature from him; he did not want, however, to go into detail on this topic and later it turned out that Dziuba's mother-in-law "should have visited" CSSR in 1968; N. did not conceal his contacts with melnykivtsi via Dr Ivanovytsch; other information about Ukrainian affairs in the Ukraine and in CSSR was rather general; he mentioned that at the Soviet Embassy in Prague a Canadian progressive by the name BOYCHUK was working;
